

Semester/Year: Spring, Summer, Fall
2012
Number of Open Positions: 1

Volunteer Job Description – Intern or Practicum Student

Request Date: January 2012 Target fill date: Immediate

Job Title: Children's Activities Intern

Objective: To create activities for children of farmers during class and workdays

Department: Global Farm

Volunteer Supervisor: Whitney Sewell, Farm Program Coordinator

Location: International Institute of Saint Louis

Time commitment: 5-10 hours per week

Responsibilities: To create healthy or agriculture related activities for children of farmers during class and workdays

Qualifications: Multi-lingual or experience working with refugees and/or children; experience teaching; creative; and patient

Training Requirements: General introduction to the farm program, farmers, and curriculum given by the Farm Program Coordinator

Benefits to Volunteer: You will have the benefit of working closely with farmers and their children from around the world in a lively urban farm environment.