

Semester/Year: Spring 2012

Number of Open Positions: 1

Volunteer Job Description—Education Internship/Practicum

Request Date: December 5, 2012

Target fill date: January 15, 2012

Job Title: Citizenship Literacy Program Intern (Evening)

Objective: Assist Citizenship Project Specialist in meeting educational needs of clients who require intensive literacy instruction and provide office support for Special and Core Programs

Department: Education Services

Volunteer Supervisor: Sarah Barnard, Manager of Special Programs and Literacy

Location: On site—Institute building

Time commitment: 3 days/week (Monday-Wednesday). Minimum of 9 hours/week between the hours of 5:00-8:30 p.m. Minimum of 12 weeks duration (minimum of 108 hours total).

Responsibilities:

- Tutor in the Citizenship Literacy Tutorial program as needed
- Assist in monitoring clients and tutors during the Citizenship Literacy Tutorial program as requested
- Assist in daily assessment and preparation of client work
- Substitute teach in the Citizenship Literacy Tutorial program as needed
- Assist with record keeping for Special and Core programs as requested
- Assist in creation of Special Programs materials as requested

Qualifications:

- Native speaker proficiency in English
- Detail-oriented
- Ability to work under pressure and in a fast-paced environment
- Ability to work well with others as well as independently
- Dependable and punctual
- Cultural sensitivity and flexibility essential
- Strong preference for at least one year of college toward a degree in Education, English, International Studies, Linguistics, Foreign Language or like field of study

Training Requirements:

Two new volunteer orientations (agency and departmental)

Periodic volunteer training workshops

On-the-job training

Optional, but encouraged if available—new staff orientation (covers services of agency)

Benefits to Volunteer:

Authentic work experience in office and classroom environments in a nationally recognized not-for-profit

Interaction with diverse populations

Make a significant contribution to the day-to-day operations of the department