From the Nazis to brutal dictatorships and war crimes in the former Yugoslavia and continuing atrocities in Colombia, the Democratic Republic of Congo, Iraq and Syria, and North Korea, Leila Nadya Sadat's new documentary examines the loopholes that allow the world's worst war criminals to escape prosecution—and argues for a better way forward. Produced by the Crimes Against Humanity Initiative at Washington University School of Law in St. Louis under the direction of Professor Leila Sadat, Director of the Whitney R. Harris World Law Institute, and by Spot Media Production Group. Caution: not for the faint of heart!
