Online Privacy Policy

Privacy Policy

This privacy statement discloses the online privacy practices for International Institute of St. Louis.

Information Collection and Use

International Institute of St. Louis is the sole owner of the information collected on this site. We will not sell, share, or rent this information to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement. International Institute of St. Louis collects information from our users at several different points on our Web site.

Web Statistics

We use IP addresses to analyze trends, administer the site, track user movement, and gather broad demographic information for aggregate use for reporting and sponsorship purposes. IP addresses are not linked to personally identifiable information.

Sharing

We will share aggregated demographic information with our partners, sponsors, and donors. This is not linked to any personal information that can identify any individual person. We only share this information so that we can secure funding to continue providing services.

Links

This Web site contains links to other sites. Please be aware that International Institute of St. Louis does not claim any responsibility for the privacy practices of such other sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site and to read the privacy statements of each and every Web site that may collect personally identifiable information. This privacy statement applies solely to information collected by this Web site.

Security

This Web site takes every precaution to protect our users' information, and we have security measures in place to protect the loss, misuse, and alteration of the information under our control.

Surveys

Occasionally, our site requests information from users via online surveys. Participation in these surveys or contests is completely voluntary and the user therefore has a choice whether or not to disclose this information. Information requested may include demographic data (such as zip code and age), but nothing that can identify any individual person will be collected. Survey results will be used for purposes of monitoring or improving the use and satisfaction of this site.

Choice/Opt-in

Our users are given the opportunity to "opt in" to newsletters and other e-mail messages. To unsubscribe from mailings, please email info@iistl.org or click "SafeUnsubscribe" in any e-mail correspondence from us.

Notification of Changes

If we decide to change our privacy policy, we will post the changes on our home page, so our users are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under what circumstances, if any, we disclose it. If at any point we decide to use personally identifiable information in a manner different from that stated at the time it was collected, we will notify users by e-mail. Users will have a choice as to whether or not we use their information in this different manner. We will use information in accordance with the privacy policy under which the information was collected.
